VWDMA will promote the valuable and necessary services our WCO members provide to homeowners and businesses in Virginia. The Association will nurture a positive working relationship with the VA DGIF, as well as other government and non-government entities that share an interest in the wildlife control industry.

There is no better way to grow your own business than by continuing to educate yourself and your employees about current trends, practices and technical methods for successful wildlife damage management. VWDMA will offer an annual training event, as well as other networking and educational opportunities.
